Gauteng Department Of Roads And Transport: Internship Human Resources Administration 2026 / 2027

Description

The Human Resources Administration Internship Program is currently open for applications. This program has been re-advertised, and individuals who previously submitted their applications are encouraged to reapply. Located under the Directorate of Human Resource Planning and Administration, there are two available positions under this program. The stipend ranges from R 5,920.62 to R 7,620.68, allocated based on the applicant's qualifications.

Program Overview

This internship program seeks to provide valuable work experience to recently graduated individuals who have completed a National Diploma or Degree in Human Resource Management. Eligible degrees include ND. HRM, B.A (HRM), and B.Comm (HRM). Applicants must be South African citizens, unemployed, within the age range of 18-35, and must not have participated in any other internship program within the Republic of South Africa.

Responsibilities

Interns will be required to perform various tasks assigned to them in relation to the post. These tasks will be aimed at providing practical experience and enhancing their skills in human resource administration.

Qualifications

Applicants must possess a National Diploma or Degree in Human Resource Management, specifically ND. HRM, B.A (HRM), or B.Comm (HRM). The program is open exclusively to South African citizens who are currently unemployed, aged between 18 and 35 years. Additionally, candidates must not have participated in any prior internship program within South Africa.

Job Benefits

Interns will receive a stipend ranging from R 5,920.62 to R 7,620.68, based on their qualifications. The program offers an opportunity to gain hands-on experience in human resource administration within a professional setting.

How To Apply?
